

SCENES FROM THE CONVENTION.

(From This Morning's World.)

Of 105 Tremont st., Boston, was in very poor health, from bad circulation of the blood, having much of blood to the head, numb spells, and chills, and the physician said the veins were almost bursting all over her body. A collision with a double runner brought on neuralgia of the liver, causing great suffering. She could not take the doctor's medicine, so took Hood's Sarsaparilla and soon fully recovered, and now enjoys perfect health. She says she could praise Hood's Sarsaparilla all day and then not say enough.

Her Reminder of an Engagemet.
(From the Portland Press.)
She shortly after the blissful silence that the delicious affirmative brought about—
Darling, now that we are engaged I have the right to ask you a question, have I not?
He—Most certainly.
—And you will answer truthfully?
—Of course.
—What is the string tied around your finger for, then?
—Great heavens! To remind me that I am already engaged.

Conditioned.
(From Pickens.)
Saint Peter (to newly arrived spirits)—Take the topogon slide.
Spirit—But, while in the flesh, I never believed in a hell.
Saint Peter—Can't help that. It's a condition which confronts you now, not a theory.
Every Attention Given.
(From Pickens.)
—Mr. Schoolmaster, I hope you will treat this little boy of mine exactly as if he were your own son.
—Oh, yes; certainly. I will give him a whipping every day, since you desire it.
The favorite with ladies, the private compartment out of the New York Central.
